FIN's fabulous French Wine Tasting Party

Recently the active duo from fin khun Benjawan Wisootsat and khun Jan Ganser organized a Wine tasting party tour from Samui to Phuket and ended with a blasted in Bangkok. The events were joined by French winemaker couple Marjorie and Stephane Gallet of Roc des Anges Estate close to the border with Spain.

I was privileged to join the one in Phuket and the one in Bangkok. Even though they provided the same wines but I didn't feel it was repetitive at all because they were more than 30 labels offered for tasting. And there is no way you can try all in just one night. The ambiance was also very different. The Phuket event was organized at the poolside of Anadara Resort and Villa. The Bangkok party was set the rooftop restaurant L'appart Sofitel Sukhumvit. By talking to people in the parties both parties were big successes. Everyone was enjoying the wine and the ambiance.
