at Andara Resort & Villas

Starting with "Land in Heaven at Trisara", for the luncheon, at Seafood of Trisara, a delectable 5-course seafood menu cooked by Chef Jimmy Ophorst and paired with a great list of the Fin Naturally wine collection from The Netherlands, France and Austria.

Heading to the south of Phuket, Kata Rocks is a modern and stylish resort with many international awards and accolades which Fin chose for the "Exclusively Yours" wine dinner at their Penthouse, the best location to view Phuket's sunset kissing the edge of the sea.

The dinner was made complete with Austrian-national Bert Salomon's, famous wines from Austria, Australia and New Zealand that have been perfectly paired with delicate Mediterranean cuisine created by Executive Chef Laia Pons who personally cooked each dish for the guests amongst a delightful evening atmosphere.

Moving on to Kamala, Mr Daniel Meury, General Manager of Andara Resort & Villas welcomed guests and escorted them to their villas which were also the venue for their lunch, with a stunning view of Kamala Beach. "Art of living and living with arts" was a private luncheon that allowed guests to chat with artists and influential figures in the lifestyle industry such as Costan Eghiazarian, Co- Founder and Creative Director of AENEAS; Lidwine Clary und Aldringen, a stylish Salzburg-based jeweler; Christian Develter, Belgian-born painter based in Thailand; Bert Salomon, artistic winemaker from Austria and Daniel Meury, General Manager of Andara Resort & Villas, a five-star resort created by the Paradise Group together with Benjawan Wisootsat from Fin - Fabulous Is Needed, a lifestyle company and boutique wines distributor in Thailand.

"Tastefully yours" lunch at Black Ginger, Indigo Pearl Hotel Phuket

The evening was a fabulous party with fine jewelry, art, and an interesting list of Austrian wine tasting featuring seven wines from superstars, Herbert Zillinger, Gernot Heinrich and Salomon Undhof. Guests were important media and VIPs from Phuket who gathered to view the masterpieces and atelier jewelry from AENEA, the first in Asia, available at Andara.

The next stop was the luxurious Indigo Pearl where Mr Wichit Na-Ranong, the resort's owner personally welcomed guests and shared the history and story behind the resort's success with them over a tasteful lunch under the theme "Tastefully Yours". The farewell lunch would never have been completed without the real taste of Phuket in a luxurious setting cooked by Chef Piak and paired with fin wines. To make the pairings even more interesting; the starters were paired with Verdejos from 2013 El Transistor, Rueda Blanco DO, Telmo Rodriguez, Spain; and 2015 VERDELHO, GranMonte Vineyards, Khao Yai, Thailand Pairing for the main course were even more remarkable, with a reputable Riesling from Germany, 2013 Vom Schiefer, Ansgar Clüsserath, Mosel, Germany, and 2014 Tavel Rosé AOC, Château d'Aquéria, Southern Rhone, France (Robert Parker: 90 points, Wine Enthusiast: 91 points). The differences in wine styles enabled diners to explore and enjoy the different kinds of pairings that can be made with local dishes; such as Moo Hong and Pak Leang Goong Seab.

Guests had another surprise, a beer brewed by a Prince Carl-Eugen, 1598 Fürst Wallerstein Edition Privée Beer which is usually for personal consumption and reception at the palace only. The evening ended on a sweet note with a dessert wine from 2013 Spätlese Cuvée, Kracher, Neusiedlersee, Burgenland, Austria putting a smile on the guests' faces before leaving phuket.
